

NRF | SAASTA SCIENCE COMMUNICATION WORKSHOP

Venue: Virtual - Zoom
Date: 13 November 2020
Time: 10h00 for 10h30 - 15h00

PROGRAMME FACILITATORS: ROBERT INGLIS & NOZIPHO GUMBI

Time	Activity	Presenter Facilitator
10h00 – 10h30	Check-in by Participants	All
10h30 – 10h40	Welcoming: University of Zululand	Prof. Khoboso Lehloenyha
10h40 – 11h00	Brief overview of NRF SAASTA and its role in developing a “scientifically literacy” society.	Mr Sizwe Khoza
11h00 – 12h00	Introduction to Science Communication <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Purpose: To introduce the participants into science communication by highlighting the history of, basic concepts and motivation for communicating science. Includes practical exercises/discussions. 	Robert Inglis & Nozipho Gumbi
12h00 – 12h15	TEA BREAK
12h15 – 13h15	Popular Science Writing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To present tools that will assist participants to develop, write and communicate their scientific findings to the different public audiences. Includes writing exercise. 	Robert Inglis & Nozipho Gumbi
13h15	Group Photo	All
13h15 – 14h00	LUNCH
14h00 – 14h40	Reflection and Discussion	Participants
14h40 – 14h50	Completion of Evaluation Forms	Participants
14h50 – 15h00	Closing Remarks	Ms Zamahlubi Radebe
15h00	Departure	All